Rankin Inlet: Kivalliq Inuit Association (KIA) President Kono Tattuinee offered his congratulations to newly elected members of the Nunavut Assembly and thanked all those that put their name forward.

“We are fortunate to have strong representation here in the Kivalliq region and I would like to thank all the candidates that put their names forward,” said president Tattuinee. “We would have liked to see a higher voter turnout, but I want to thank everyone that participated and worked in our Territorial election.”

The Kivalliq Inuit Association looks forward to meeting with members and the new cabinet on shared priorities in the coming months.

“One of our most important priority projects is the Kivalliq Hydro-Fibre Link and we look forward to advancing our work with the new cabinet and members,” concluded president Tattuinee. “We also look forward to discussing some of our concerns with the new Draft Nunavut Land Use Plan and working together on important issues such as elders care, housing, and mental health and addictions support.”
