

Ukkusiksalik Scholarship Guidelines and Application Form

The Kivalliq National Parks Scholarship Trust was established under the terms and conditions of the Inuit Impact Benefits Agreement (IIBA) negotiated between the Government of Canada and the Kivalliq Inuit Association with respect to establishment of the Ukkusiksalik National Park.

The Ukkusiksalik National Parks Scholarship Trust will award Inuit students who pursue post-secondary education or training at an accredited post-secondary institution, in the field of:

- traditional ecological knowledge;
- archaeology, anthropology, history, sociology and other social sciences;
- Biology geography and other natural sciences;
- renewable resource management, wildlife management, geographic information systems, remote sensing, environmental technology; and/or
- administration, business management, financial management, accounting, bookkeeping, human resource management.

The period for applications is July 1 to August 31, 2019 at 5:00 p.m. (CST).

Students must be enrolled in full-time studies for both September and January semesters.

Students who do not complete the academic year for which they receive the scholarship will be required to pay back the amount received in full from KIA.
