Help Shape the Future of Ukkusiksalik National Park

The Kivalliq Inuit Association is seeking passionate, committed individuals to serve on the Ukkusiksalik Park Management Committee. This is an opportunity to make a meaningful impact on the stewardship, planning, and protection of one of Nunavut's most culturally significant and ecologically rich places - Ukkusiksalik National Park.

Ideal nominees are Inuit who:

- Care deeply about the land, wildlife, and cultural heritage of Ukkusiksalik
- Bring knowledge of Inuit culture, harvesting, history, or community priorities
- Are thoughtful, fair-minded, and committed to consensus-building
- Can participate in meetings and review materials
- Are interested in governance, planning, or community leadership
- Want to help ensure Inuit voices guide the future of the Park

Experience in land use, wildlife, archaeology, tourism, or community leadership is an asset—but not required. Commitment and passion matter most.

The Ukkusiksalik Park Management Committee:

- Meets at least twice per year (more often as needed)
- May meet in person or by teleconference
- Includes honoraria and travel expenses

Please submit a resume including:

- Your name and contact information
- A brief statement about your interest in serving
- Any relevant experience or community involvement

Email resume or questions to: nominations@kivalliqinuit.ca

Please add Subject: Ukkusiksalik Park Management Committee

CLOSING DATE: JULY 3rd, 2026, AT 12:00 PM CST
